

Scenario 1: The Rich Woman and the Charity

Narrator: A representative from a charity goes to a wealthy woman (or man) to ask for a donation to assist people who are homeless.

Charity representative: “I know you’ve been very generous to charities in the past. Please, would you give us a donation? It would make a big difference to a lot of people who are in need.”

Potential Donor: “How will I be recognized if I make a donation? It’s important that people know that I made the donation, not someone else.”

Charity representative: “The homeless people you help will all be so grateful, and they will all be told that it was you who helped them.”

Potential Donor: “But I want other people to know too, not just the homeless people,” she said. “Will it be in the news?”

Charity representative: “Oh yes. And if your donation is large enough, you will be specially honored at our annual party celebration with a trophy.”

Potential Donor: [smiling hugely]: “In that case, I agree.”

Scenario 2: The Basketball Captain and the Recruit

The captain of the basketball (or another sports) team sees potential in a new student and really wants her (or him) to join the team, thinking it will help the team win the championship that year. The new student doesn’t particularly want to join, though, and tells the captain this. The captain gets the members of the team to be really nice to the new student, giving her presents, saying all sorts of nice things to her.

Scenario 3: The Two Brothers and the Kitten

Narrator: Two brothers were playing in a park one day and then they saw a beautiful little kitten. The older brother thought, “Oh, what a pretty kitten!” and he wanted to capture it for himself, so he threw a stick at it and started to chase it. The kitten got scared and tried to run away, but since it couldn’t run very well yet, it had trouble escaping him.

Younger brother: “Stop! Don’t hurt the kitten! It’s only a baby!”

Narrator: Then he went to go and help the kitten and protect it. When he reached the kitten, he petted it and offered it some food. But the older brother got angry and kept trying to get at the kitten and catch it. Then their mother came by

Mother: “What’s going on?”

Older brother: “That kitten is mine! I saw it first! I wanted to capture it! Make him give it to me!”

Younger brother: “No, don’t give it to him. He tried to hurt it.”

Mother: “I don’t know what happened because I wasn’t here to see it. Maybe we should let the kitten decide.”

Narrator: The older brother who had tried to hurt and capture the kitten tried to call to her sweetly.

Older brother: “Please come to me little kitten! I will take good care of you!”

Narrator: The mother placed the kitten between the two boys to see who it would go to.

Mother: [to the kitten] “Who do you choose?”
